it seemed to furnish an opportunity. And it was only from the highest religious regard to justice to our cause, & our friends, at home abroad, that I moved in the matter.

But I always defer to you, as the older & better, as well as older soldier, in these literally, "wars of the Lord."

And remain as ever,

Yours most truly & sincerely

Parker Pillsbury.

Mar. 1. 1859.

Will you or Mr. Wasy be so kind as to bring along any letters that remain in the Office for me, to Worcester.

malignant & murderous attack on the Am. A. S. Society, and exhibited ever since, in every variety of manner, till now, for some reason, there is an application, which even he seems to regard & treat with a singular dubiousness.

And on looking again at the Utica Letter, I find that also drawn up in the same ambiguous manner.

I have long wished to bear my humble testimony against Jedediah Smith; and though this affair of Randolph's is to me particularly loathsome, still,

Jany 7, 1837

Dear Friend Garrison.

I am very, very sorry for the omission in my article in the Liberator of today, relative to the style & quality of those Certificates by Gerrit Smith.

He has played his game of "fast & loose" in a most singular way, for a long time — giving our most inveterate foes credentials, whenever desired, for every kind of merit; notwithstanding all the dishonesty, treachery, deceit & hatred, attending the rape of the Emancipator, the